Senate Primary Investigation May Consider Negro Disfranchisement

POLICE SEEK COLORED MAN, WHITE WOMAN

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 26. — Authorities early Sunday morning were continuing their search for a mysterious white woman and a colored man in connection with the murder of a 17-year old white girl a week ago today.

They would not divulge the connection of the mysterious white woman in the hunt for the slayer of the girl but it was learned Saturday night police believe that she could throw some light on certain circumstances that might aid in the capture of the person who slashed the girl's throat.

Quarrel With Alice
It was also learned that the colored man sought is the one said to have quarreled with the girl on the Saturday preceding the morning of the murder.

The quarrel between the white girl and the colored man is said to have been so violent that it attracted neighbors.

Henrietta, the 30-year-old sister of the dead girl, who with her sister Evelyn, 19, was asleep in the room with Alice when she was murdered, was in the store at the time the quarrel between Alice and the colored man is said to have taken place, but she has denied repeatedly to the authorities that she heard the quarrel or knew anything of it.

Search for the colored man had failed at an early hour Sunday morning, but police were confident that he would be found. They believe that he will be able to throw much light on circumstances that may lead to the capture of the girl's murderer.

DR. S. A. FURNISS ADDRESSES BIG MUNCIE CROWDS

Newly Appointed Chairman Of The Colored Republican Bureau Stirs Emancipation Audience With Ringing Speech

MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 26.—Speaking to more than 500 persons at the Emancipation celebration held in Calvary Baptist church here, Monday afternoon, Dr. S. A. Furniss of Indianapolis traced the accomplishments of the American Negro and declared that the Negro has played a prominent part in the development of this country. "Crispus Attucks, a black man," said he, "was the first human being to shed his blood in the defense of American ideals. From that eventful day on, Boston Common," he continued, "his valor and Americanism have been infatigable and constant. In all great conflicts where the existence of our nation was threatened, no genuine has been his spirit that we are yet constrained to extol the name of the sublime emancipator. When marble and stone have crumbled to dust, Lincoln's name will live on."

Beckwith Flays Communism
Frank R. Beckwith also spoke. A. H. Vestal, Muncie representative in congress, 8th Indiana Congressional district, was the principal speaker at the emancipation celebration. He said, among other things, "The Romans, the Egyptians, the Germans and all peoples on earth are proud of the contributions they have made to humanity and the American Negro must appreciate more profoundly the marvelous achievements of members of his race. I have never in my 14 years' career in congress, voted against any legislation which would improve your opportunities and I never will. One of the most gratifying things which it falls to my happy lot to do is to help provide adequate appropriations for the upkeep of Howard university."

EVIDENCE INSUFFICIENT TO INDICT BLOOMINGTON BOY; IS RELEASED

Carl Breedlove, 17-Year-Old White Youth, In Pre-Death Statements, Exonerates Hays From Blame

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Sept. 26.—No indictment was returned against George Isaac Hays, 18, for the fatal shooting of Carl Breedlove, 17 year old white boy. The grand jury which has been in session since Monday afternoon, made its finding in the case late Thursday afternoon of last week, holding that there was insufficient evidence to convict Hays.

Young Hays, who has been held in jail since September 2, the night of the fatal shooting at the Hays home on North Adams street, was released last Saturday morning.

The white boy, who lived more than ten days after he was shot in the breast by Hays, made statements to officers before he died in which he exonerated Hays from blame, saying that he had no business going to the Hays home.

In his statement, Breedlove said he had gone to the Hays home to take two men, a colored man and an Italian, who were going to visit Hays's mother, Mrs. Victoria Hays and sister, Lillie Hays.

Hays asserted that he believed he was defending himself when he fired the fatal shot from the door of his home, as three men had come to the house the previous night and threatened him.

In a writ of ignoramus filed with the court, the grand jury recommended that Hays be released from custody, but also recommended that the grand jury stenographer make a written report of evidence examined in the case that it might be used in the future if any new evidence should be found in the case.

Missouri Man Gets Appointment As Asst. Atty General

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 26.—(ANP)—Stratton Snodell, attorney general of the State of Missouri, announced this week at Jefferson City, the state capitol, the appointment of Silas E. Garner of this city, to serve in the capacity of special assistant to the attorney general. Mr. Garner is the first Negro to receive an appointment of this character in Missouri.

LIFE SENTENCE IS SUSTAINED AT NEW TRIAL

Circuit Court At South Bend Turns Deaf Ear To Plea Of Convicted Men—Brokenburr Fights Valiantly

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 26.—John May, 19 years old, and Richard Harris, 23, who claimed they were "railroaded" to prison to serve life terms although they never pleaded guilty to charges against them, brought action in circuit court demanding that they be brought here from the State penitentiary at Michigan City and be given a fair trial.

May and Harris were sentenced to imprisonment a year ago by Judge Pattee on a charge of robbery with a deadly weapon, which carries life imprisonment as a maximum penalty. They were charged with beating two white boys with an iron bar and robbing them of $2.50 while the four were "bumming" a ride on a freight train.

The action filed in circuit court for a retrial was effected after a welfare society in West Virginia employed attorney R. L. Brokenburr of Indianapolis, to investigate the circumstances of the two sentences.

According to the boys, they were sentenced after a "private conversation with Judge Pattee in circuit court last September.

May was taken into the courtroom, he said, and Judge Pattee asked:

"Were you on the train with Harris?"

"Yes," May replied.

"Then you are guilty too and I am going to sentence you to life imprisonment," he quoted the judge as saying.

Seven hours later, he said, he was in prison.

His reply to the question of the judge did not constitute a plea of guilty, May's attorneys contended in their action to vacate the judgment and obtain a trial by jury.

Harris said Judge Pattee asked him whether he had robbed the two white youths and that he replied that he hadn't.

"Were you on that train?" the judge is said to have asked then. Harris replied that he was.

"Then you are guilty and the best I can do is give you life imprisonment," Judge Pattee is quoted as saying.

May said that when he was arrested near LaPorte, Ind., he was beaten and threatened with mob violence and that when he appeared before Judge Pattee he was still shaking with fear.

He also pointed out that he was not given an opportunity to hire an attorney and was not advised of his Constitutional rights to a trial before a jury before sentence was pronounced.

May and Harris, who left school when they were in the third grade, said at the time that they did not know they were entitled to a trial and that less than 48 hours after they were arrested they found themselves in prison for life.

In spite of the masterly efforts put forth by Attorney Brokenburr, in defense of the boys, the original life sentence was sustained.

SAY POLITICAL DYNAMITE LIES IN BIG QUERY

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.

—That there is political dynamite in Sen. Nye's investigation of senatorial primary elections, is the conclusion of Mark Sullivan, Washington correspondent of the New York Herald Tribune who bases his belief upon the prospect that the exclusion of Negroes from voting privileges in the south may enter the field of inquiry.

"Whether Senator Nye's investigations of senatorial primaries will extend into southern states is one of the most explosive questions of the campaign," writes Mr. Sullivan in the Herald-Tribune of September 17. What this group has in mind is to use the Nye committee as a lever to pry at the explosive question of Negro participation — or, more accurately, non-participation — in Democratic primaries in the south. That issue, carried to the end to which some persons want to carry it, would question the right of at least ten Democratic senators to their seats.

Mr. Sullivan quotes the scope of the investigation ordered by Senate as being, besides the examination into improper expenditures, to cover "the use of any other means of influence which would not only be of public interest but which would aid the senate in deciding any contest involving the right to a seat in the United States senate." He adds: "That language means, as respects southern Democratic primaries, the participation or non-participation of Negro voters."

"In the second place Negro voters have just won a decisive advantage in the Federal courts. A United States Circuit has declared unconstitutional a condition of the Democratic primary system in Virginia which excludes Negroes. Apparently the Virginia Democratic officials concerned did not care to contest the decision, for just this week they have permitted time for an appeal to expire and the decision stands."

"The net of the situation is that there are energetic persons who are determined to use the Nye committee as a step toward a large end. The purpose is to have the Senate debate and pass upon the question whether a southern Democratic senator is entitled to his seat if he won it in a primary in which Negro voters were deprived of participation. The persons having this determination are radicals or progressives primarily, rather than Republicans, and Republicanism is not their motive, although the Republicans presumably would benefit. Anyone familiar with American history since the Civil war knows this is a decidedly explosive situation."

Lynching Pictures Taken Off Market

TERRE HAUTE, Sept. 26.—During the past several days, postal and photographs of the lynching of Shipp and Smith at Marion, Indiana, have appeared on some stands and drug stores. The pictures are said to have been put out by the Society for the Advancement of the Colored Race as visible example of what the colored people confront.

Recently the pictures disappeared and it was stated that the books had been bought up by Mrs. Grace Evans, member of the local Republican executive committee.

PLACE OF NEGRO MUSIC IN AMERICAN LIFE

Hayes, Professor of Music at New York University, Goes to Defense of Status of Group's Contribution

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—(ANP)—The summer school of music at New York University was the scene of an interesting discussion of the place of Negro music in American life, and the music of which Ernest H. Hayes, professor of music at New York University, was the only colored member. Mr. Hayes is a professor of music and theory in the Hampton Institute, and he has been called upon to give an exposition of his views.

Illustrating his point, Mr. Hayes played a number of records, including "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" and "The Swanee River." He said that the Negro has been called upon to give an exposition of his views.

Ministerial Duet Contest Goes Over Big

The Inter-Church Ministerial Duet contest held at Mt. Paran Baptist church last Friday night went over with a bang. Mt. Paran was crowded to the limit and hundreds were unable to get even a glimpse of the gala affair of the evening. Prof. F. W. Bowler the popular director of Mt. Paran Baptist church was the master of ceremonies and he played part in a most effective way and his introduction was pleasing to hear.

Three numbers were rendered by the massive congregation. Dr. G. W. Ward of Antioch Baptist church gave the invocation. Mrs. Laura Wilkins of Mt. Paran gave a reading from Dunbar that was very fitting for the occasion. Arthur Greer wrote an original poem for the occasion, which was read by Mrs. Hester Porter of Barnes M. E. church. This poem was very unique in its composition. The following ministers and their wives sang: Dr. R. L. Pope and his director of choir, Bethel A. M. E. church; Rev. and Mrs. Robert E. Skelton, Barnes M. E. church; Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Hackley, St. John A. M. E. church; Dr. and Mrs. G. Andrews, New Liberty Baptist church; Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Wallace, Scott's M. E. church; Dr. and Mrs. F. P. Young, First Baptist church; Dr. Carter and the director of his choir, 17th St. Baptist church and Dr. Bell of Mount Paran Baptist church. The singing of the gospel warblers was the best ever heard in the city. The audience was more than pleased at the program and because of the splendid program given at Mt. Paran, requests have come in from five other churches to have the entertainment given at their church. These ministers and their wives will be known in the future as the Inter-Church Ministerial Choral society and engagements can be arranged for their services through Dr. Bell of Mt. Paran and Robert E. Skelton, pastor of Barnes M. E. church. The winner of the contest was Dr. C. H. Bell of Mount Paran Baptist church, who also won the Ministerial Solo contest at Barnes sometime ago. Dr. Bell was singing "All Alone" and he climaxed an evening of much joy singing all alone.

The child told of the direction which her attacker had taken and the hunt was on. The hounds barked and the men shouted and cursed as they sought their prey. Had little trouble in following it. The hounds barked and the members of the mob felt that all was not well and after some deliberation, decided to return to the city.

Dogs And Mob Trace Rape Suspect To Arkansas Graveyard; Then Get Afraid

HELENA, Ark., September 26.—(ANP)—Bloodhounds and members of a mob in quest of a "Negro man" alleged to have assaulted a fourteen-year-old white girl, were balked when the trail led to a cemetery about a mile and a half from here Thursday night and the search for the alleged assailant was left to officers of the law, who awaited dawn before resuming operation.

The alleged attack occurred Thursday afternoon, and a child told a touching story of how she had been attacked by a Negro man as she was en route to her home from school in West Helena. The news spread like wild-fire throughout the city, and hordes of men, many of them unemployed, rallied to the call to find the assailant and lynch him.

The child told of the direction which her attacker had taken and the hunt was on. The hounds barked and the men shouted and cursed as they sought their prey. Had little trouble in following it. The hounds barked and the members of the mob felt that all was not well and after some deliberation, decided to return to the city.

Member Of British Parliament Addresses Officials And Students Of Bennett College

"The Rise To Power Of The Labor Party In England," Subject Discussed By Arthur Henderson At Greensboro, N. C.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Sept. 26. (ANP)—Arthur Henderson, Jr., member of the House of Commons of the British Parliament, addressed officials and students of Bennett college and a large number of visitors, Friday morning, using as his topic, "The Rise To Power Of The Labor Party In England." He was introduced by Edward B. Benjamin of this city, whose guest he is, as a member of the labor party, designated by Mr. Benjamin as the most powerful political faction of the British Empire and as being responsible for many forward and progressive movements.

Mr. Henderson in his address traced briefly changes in the social order and especially those which have affected women. He stated that his party has stood for the general franchise since 1922, and that in his opinion, women have proved themselves in many instances to be equals of the men. There are fifteen women in Parliament and a woman has been placed in the British cabinet. Another outstanding accomplishment for women in England is the appointment of a full accredited delegate to the League of Nations, in session at Geneva. After discussing women's part in governmental affairs, Mr. Henderson traced the history of his party from 1900, giving its background and mentioning some of the reforms it has effected.

Tuskegee Defeats 24th U. S. Infantry 42 To 0 At Doughboy Stadium

DOUGHBOY STADIUM WAS THE SCENE OF LIVELY FOOTBALL TILT

Thousands Witness Army Men Go Down To Defeat In Big Game At Ft. Benning, Ga.

DOUGHBOY STADIUM, Ft. BENNING, Ga., Sept. 26.—Giving a great exhibition of early season form, Tuskegee defeated the 24th United States Infantry, 42 to 0, in the Doughboy stadium here Sept. 26. The game was cleanly played, hard fought and marked by few penalties. A crowd of several thousand spectators, soldier sympathizers, sat in the concrete stands, through a slight drizzling rain, and yelled with all power their lusty lungs could afford for touchdowns by their fighting heroes, but the men of the army were lacking in the driving power and punch—and they failed to deliver.

Plays Good Game
Stevenson, the Tiger's great triple-threat, played his usual good game. He registered the first touchdown for the Cadets. He sent the ball sailing through for the extra point, but a Tiger player was declared off-side and the point was not allowed. Tuskegee scored again when Belcher blocked a punt and I. Robinson fell on the ball behind the goal line for a touchdown. Stevenson kicked the extra point. First quarter: Tuskegee, 13; 24th Infantry, 0.

Shortly after the opening of the second quarter, Stevenson crossed for a touchdown and place kicked for the extra point. Johnson, his running mate, gave ample evidence that he, too, is fleet of foot, when he snatched a soldier pass and ran 60 yards for a touchdown. He missed the try for the extra point.

Reserve Squads Responded
Coasting along on a lead of 23 points the Tuskegee coach began to send in replacements, who had little difficulty in holding the soldiers and at the same time exhibiting excellent football talent. Joyner and McCarthy were constant threats. They broke through and circled the ends time after time for considerable yardage. Campbell, Brooks, C. Jackson, Camp, Henry, A. McKinney, Ben McKinney, T. Harris, Ikner, Mazique, Brown, Countee, Alba, Mobley, Smith and Raymond Johnson were other members of the Tigers reserve squad who responded to the emergency call and rose to the occasion. Woolridge showed excellent judgment in diagnosing the army plays and in directing the Tuskegee attack. His generalship showed marked superiority over that of his army opponent.

While Stevenson, the Crimson gridiron wizard, was the outstanding player on the Tiger team, he was ably assisted by a strong forward wall and by Harrison and Shanklin of the backfield. Hockett thrilled the five thousand fans when he snatched a pass and ran within three feet of the goal line before being downed, paving the way for a touchdown which followed on the second succeeding play. Shanklin made the final touchdown for the Tigers and Stevenson passed to Robinson for the extra point. A safety before the final gun widened the margin of victory 42 points.

Tuskegee's Game
It was clearly Tuskegee's game. The soldiers registered only one first down. Their passes were either intercepted or knocked down and their charges were blocked at the line of scrimmage.

The officiating was, excellently done by Lieut. Gilbreth, referee; (West Point); Lieut. Ives, umpire; (West Point); Lieut. Gilmarin, headlinesman (West Point); Lieut. Pierson, field judge, (Cornell).

Tuskegee's excellent band paraded between the halves and made a fine showing.

"Birth Of A Nation" Not Turned Down

LOS ANGELES, September 26.—(ANP)—That the "Birth of a Nation," which reopened at the President theatre, here, after the old silent film had been remade in sound is less objectionable than the original is being expressed by some of the local colored theatre-goers who hurried to witness it.

Enright Wins Over Odelphians

The Enright defeated the Odelphian club in one of the most exciting games ever played at Doughboy stadium. The game was largely attended by many ladies who were seated in separate groups in order to designate their favorite team. The game was accompanied by plenty of noise from each group. The Enright started off with a score in their first half of the first inning but Martin, pitching for the Odelphians, held them at bay until his team mates were able to take the lead. Adams, who was so effective against the Odelphians in a previous game, was unable to stand the slaughter from the Odelphian bats and took for the shelter in the fourth inning. Marbury and Sharp undertook to rescue him but they both suffered the same attack. In the seventh inning with the Odelphians leading by four scores, Winfrey, pitching for the Odelphians, allowed Joyner to hit to right field after two misplays by the Odelphian infield had put Hinton and Harper on. At this point, Umpire Brown lent an awful hand to the Enright by calling the ball fair. The Odelphians protested the decision vigorously. Umpire Allen, standing near first base, umpiring bases, agreed with the Odelphians that it was foul but Umpire Brown would not change his decision. Three more scores crossed the plate while the Odelphians were swarmed around Umpire Brown, trying to convince him. Martin Highbaugh and Cosby of the Odelphians both got home runs.

The lineup: Odelphians—Taliaferro, cf.; Proctor, 3b.; Highbaugh, lf.; Young, 1b.; Bell, rf.; Clark, 2b.; Woolridge, ss.; Cosby, c.; Martin, p.; Winfrey, p.

COLLEGE TEAM IS GIVEN ITS FIRST WORKOUT

Crimson Tornado Of Talladega Put Through Fundamentals On Silsby Field

By A. D. GRAY
TALLADEGA, Ala., Sept. 26.—Blocking and running was the order of the day in the initial workout of the Crimson Tornado of Talladega college.

Coach Ted Wright put his charges through the fundamentals in the first work out of season on Silsby field with a great number of veteran letter men on hand. Nolan, Porter, Wright, Sanders, Pitts, Speed, James, Pigrom, McCord, Garner, Word and W. Pigrom are some of the veterans of last season's aggregation who are expected to come through in fine style again this season.

Willis Pitts and Leo Hutchins, veterans of 1927, are back with the Tornado this year. Both are letter men and a great half-back and tackle, respectively.

The first game of the season will be with the fast little team from Alabama A. & M., October 11, on Silsby field. The boys from Normal gave the Tornado plenty of opposition last season, and word comes to the Tornado Mentor that they are in better condition this year.

Following this opener the Tornado will take on Tuskegee in Birmingham at Legion Field on Oct. 17. This game promises to be the biggest early game of the Southern conference. The old grads of both schools have indicated that they will be on hand in large numbers. More than 15,000 people in all are expected to witness this great game.

BERG, WINNER OVER CHOCOLATE KID, IS FAST LOSING POPULARITY

Echoes Of Fight Ring With The Return Of Spectacular Cuban From Native Soil

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(ANP)—Echoes of the Chocolate-Berg fight are ringing with the return of the spectacular Cuban from his native shores Friday. Fighting Thursday night at the Queensboro stadium out in Long Island City, Berg won a slow, uninteresting fight from Joe Glick, the Williamsburg button hole fashioner.

Of this fight, Harry Grayson, Evening Telegram fight expert, says, "Berg was a $200,000 attraction against Kid Chocolate six weeks ago, but another performance such as that of Thursday night, and he'll be just another fighter—from both the competitive and box office standpoints."

"Indeed, as the result of his showing, the Madison Square Garden matchmaker isn't half as eager to sign him with the Suarezes, McLarnins and Singers as he was before the young man from London's ghetto squared off with the cagey Glick."

"Berg butts and heels and commits every manner of foul, save striking low. Usually these tactics are concealed fairly well by his busy style and speed, but Thursday night, Jack, the Kid, lacked the dash and fire that thrice swamped Bruce Flowers, brushed Tony Canzonetti aside and enabled him to outcharge Chocolate."

On the same bill, the most spectacular fight was that between Koli-Kola and Terry Roth, with the former stopping his opponent in the second round of the scheduled ten-round fight by a technical knockout.

Kola is on the high road to success, having made more than an impression in his five battles at the Olympia club. That institution, under the management of Jess McMahon, made Jess forget all about Ebbetts field and has become a consistent money maker, go much so that Jess recently went to a place for the coming season. In order to prevent further conflict in dates, Jess has moved his show nights back one more, now holding forth on Fridays instead of Thursdays which has been assigned the garden by the boxing commission.

TO STAR IN A NEW PLAY

Aubrey Lyle And Leigh Whipper Are Principal Characters In Musical Comedy

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—(ANP)—"We're Risin'" is the name of the new musical comedy which began rehearsal here two weeks ago under the auspices of the Erlangers. Aubrey Lyle, formerly of the Miller & Lyle duo, is one of the stellar members of the cast which includes Josephine Hall, as prima donna, Lethia Hill, the famed

THE INDIANS ARE COMING!

WILBERFORCE COACHES GET FIVE ADDITIONS

Host Of Gridiron Plans Are Cooked Up By Buckeye Mentor To Get First Test, Oct. 4th

WILBERFORCE, O., Sept. 26.—(ANP)—The thud of the pigskin again is heard in this gridiron mecca as the 1930 Wilberforce football machine tunes up for one of its stiffest drives.

With but a few losses from last year's squad and with more than 25 new men already out in logs, Coach Graves has smiled broadly for the first time since a broken leg recently laid him up. The Buckeye mentor, during these days of confinement, cooked up a host of gridiron plans which will get their first test when the Green and Gold machine collides with the Big Blues of Bluefield in the opening game of the schedule, here, October 4.

In addition to his regular aide-de-camp, Hank Coruthers, Coach Graves is assisted this year by Ed Richey, former all-star quarterback for the Bulldogs and Mack E. Green, product of the Y. M. C. A. college at Springfield, Mass. This enlargement of the coaching staff will mean that there can be more specialization in the finer points of football.

Already in practice Ed Singer of the Zanesville (O.) high school, Henry Robinson of the John Hay high school of Cleveland and A. Russell of Central high school, Louisville, are showing up exceptionally well. Andrews of Dallas, Tex., and Vernel Ward of Boley, Okla., both of whom have had valuable football experience, have also reported. In addition there are five gridirers who have reported from Bishop college in Texas.

While this week's workouts have been of a light nature, unimbering and tossing the ball, next week scrimmages. The Bulldogs are pointing hard for their game with Tuskegee in Chicago, October 25, and from their present showing, the Tigers are in for a hard afternoon.

Dempsey To Get Colored Valet

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Sept. 26.—(ANP)—When Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion of the world, left these parts recently, he was accompanied by John Ross, local chap who will serve in the capacity of valet to Jack.

When Ross was employed by Jack, the latter stated that it was always one of his ambitions to have a Negro valet and Ross fitted the bill perfectly. It has been recalled here that while Dempsey always had Negroes as sparring partners when priming for a big fight, he steadfastly refused to meet Harry Wills.

BOXING ARENA HAS 22 PORTERS

LOS ANGELES, September 26.—(ANP)—One strong argument in favor of boxing so far as the Negro side of it is concerned, is the fact that twenty-two colored janitors are making their living by working at the Olympic auditorium, the Madison Square garden of Los Angeles.

This vast amphitheatre presents a colossal task even for this little army of men to keep in neat, clean condition.

Frequently as in the case of events in daily succession, the men must work all night as every inch of main floor and balconies is scrubbed, mopped and the seats wiped off, making it suitable for the most fastidious patron.

All the men are in charge of D. A. Barnett and he declares he never handled a more tractable, willing crew.

blues crooner and Ollie Perkins. Leigh Whipper is to do for the new show his famous interpretation of "The Crab Man," one of the interesting memories of Porgy.

As a matter of fact Mr. Whipper admits that "The Crab Man" was written for "We're Risin'." The book of which was done some time ago and lifted from that show for the place it occupied in Porgy. Jay C. Robinson the gifted young composer is responsible for the music of the production which is to have its premier out of town at a date yet to be set.

Two teams organized by the Douglass park golf club known as the National league and the American league, played their second game of the series Sunday. The American league pitched by Mr. Geo. Browder, won the first two games from Mr. Sea Ferguson's national leagues. The scores of each team and players are as follows:

American League
Dr. S. A. Auter, 94; H. Dunlap, 94.
J. W. Waddy, 97; Harry S. Skages, 99.
Jack Gordon, 107; Earl Bell, 108.
H. R. Bailor, 123.

National League
Capt. Sea Ferguson, 91; A. Dillard, 84.
Dr. Homer Wales, 87; Leon Hill, 90.

KNOXVILLE HAS BIG PROSPECTS FOR FOOTBALL

Corches Noncommittal In Regard To Team — Forty Men Report For Practice

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 27.—With forty men on the field for practice at Knoxville college, Coach Wallace O. Hawkins is saying little about prospects for the year. Observers say that he is well pleased with the showing made by his grid men during the first days of training.

While a number of valuable players were lost by graduation last spring, there are eight lettermen back in school led by Captain Leonard Gray, veteran of several seasons. A number of the new men are showing up well and stand a good chance of capturing places among the regulars.

Assisting Coach Hawkins with his work this year is Joe Matthews who has had a number of years of football experience. Mr. Matthews played center on the Knoxville team last year and will have the line men under his instruction. Both Coaches Hawkins and Matthews attended the football coaching school at Northwestern university during the last two weeks of August.

On the whole, prospects look better for the team than they did last year. The end positions are giving the coaches some trouble as there is lack of material, but some of the new men may develop into dependable wing men.

A schedule of eight games has been announced for the year. The last week of November is open and an additional game may be contracted for on that date. The schedule follows:

October 4—Kentucky State at Knoxville.
October 11—Morehouse college at Atlanta.
October 18—Bluefield institute at Bluefield.
October 25—Talladega at Knoxville, (Homecoming).
November 1—Tuskegee at Tuskegee.
November 8—24th Infantry, at Knoxville.
November 14—Livingstone at Salisbury.
November 22—Alabama A. & M. at Knoxville.
November 27 or 29—Open.

Andrew Sharpe, 96; Solomon Bailey, 90.
Guy Miller, Sr., 101; Edward Jones, 108.
F. Bullock, 116.

The matches are creating much interest among the golfers and the boys are displaying some real golf. The next match will be played Sunday, Sept. 28, with the club series starting the first Sunday in October, 95.

HANDAY SAYS THERE WILL BE A REAL PLAY ON BROADWAY?

NEW YORK CITY, Sept. 27.—(CNS)—W. C. Handy, creator of "St. Louis Blues," recently wrote an outstanding criticism to an outstanding critic, Mr. Littell of the New York World. In part Mr. Handy said:

"I read your article, 'Down in Front,' which appeared in The World for Monday August 25. Let me compliment you on the thought that prompted your writing it."

"It is a pity, as you say, to see Negro shows become 'bay copies' of white shows, imitating their worst and the whitest features."

"I have lived through the various stages of development in Negro music and play production in our artistry—playing and singing only in our own out-of-the-way places. More recently we have come exploited and tagged to the glorification of our own talents as well as the box receipts."

"The present-day producer is going on the supposition that imitators are as good as the real thing. Hence, all the abandoned dancing and the luscious singing of Negro chorus girls have been shelved in order to give place to girls who look more like white girls and do better imitations of what Ziegfeld's girls do."

"There will be a real Negro play on Broadway some day. This play must be conceived in Negro minds, the music written by Negro composers who have the blues and the spirituals and spontaneous jazz in their hearts and the feel of banjo strings in their fingers."

"I hope some day to be able to be part and parcel of such a production. It must be produced and backed by Negroes. There will be brown and black chorus girls, too, whose first ability shall be to sing and dance. There will be songs that are rhythmical and original."

"When this show comes along it will be as big a hit as 'Shuffle Along' or the successes of Cole and Johnson and Williams."

LOCAL FOOTBALL CANDIDATES CALLED TO ACTION RALLY STRONG

Coach Shelburne And Assistants Say Ninety-Seven Players Answered Summons — Pleased With Tenacity

Coach Shelburne's call for football candidates was answered by ninety-seven men. The coach and his assistants are very pleased with the tenacity of those remaining. In spite of the hard scrimmaging and tackling practices, there are seventy-eight candidates reporting daily. The coach stated, "Since the material surpasses all other responses, I will not make the first cut until after the first game. I sincerely believe that this team is far superior to any of my previous productions."

The first game is to be played Saturday at Pennsy park against the Alumni.

The new material is showing up unusually well. Albert "Lightning" Modlyn and all the nick name implies, pivots, runs and hits the line uncanonically. He is one candidate that must be watched. Charles Brown and E. Diggs are competing in veteran style for both tackle positions.

Willard "Mike" Ransom is fighting like an "Irishman," and has more than his share of internal fortitude. It seems as if his small physique will not prove a liability. The back field is showing quite differently from last year. Robert "Puckwood" Dunn, the phantom halfback, is running, kicking and changing pace with true championship individuality. Our old linesman Bigsby, has found his position. Bigsby, this year, is carrying one-hundred and fifty pounds of "beef," which he uses conveniently at hitting the line whenever a yard or two is needed. Bigsby seems very promising at full position. A few other back field candidates that are not to be overlooked are McGavock and Haywood.

The line positions are quite uncertain. The neophyte linesmen that are showing up unusually good are H. "Nig" Lewis, A. Horsley, Gerald "Little Jelly" Horn, Yandis Daniels and Haskins. These men are following in the footsteps of our veterans.

The reporting lettermen are William "Pat" Daniels, Harvey "Pete" Brown, James "Shu" Robinson, Everett "Sniper" Rice, John "J. D." Stratton, Albert "Red" Meyers, and Kenneth "Able" Adams. Last year "Able" Adams was on the city's honorable mention selection for all city's football team. There are a few other varsity men who enrolled late and are seen resuming their studies. They are: Carl "Baby Face" Richardson, Stanley Johnson, year before last's star quarterback, and John "Specks" Bracken.

On the coaching staff is Fred Parker, Redford Morris and the former "Wilberforce" star center, Richard "Jelly" Horn.

DENIES RUMOR OF CHANGE IN ALLEGIANCE

NEW YORK Sept. 26.—(ANP) A cable from Roland Hayes to his management in Boston refutes a rumor which has had some circulation to the effect that he intends to relinquish his American citizenship. The cable reads:

"I have no intentions of changing my American citizenship. I have never entertained such a thought. My manifested interest in America and the philanthropic work to which I devote practically the whole of the financial gain from my tours, namely for student aid and the maintenance of an experimental farm in rural Georgia, directed to the purpose of community uplifts, are such import to me that an idea of the sort is beyond my imagination."

Mr. Hayes will return from Europe next month to open his seventh tour of his own country. This tour, one of his most extensive, will include both eastern and western cities and parts of his native south which he has never before visited.

John R. Robinson
The crowd last Friday night was the largest that has attended the tent meetings being conducted at Warder park by Rev. Ralph Rader. Meeting was scheduled to begin at 7:30; by 7:00 seats were taken. One hundred extra chairs were placed outside of the tent, but these were soon filled and several hundred people were standing. The colored churches of this city, invited to give a program of Spirituals with Rev. Tolbert, in charge. Rev. Logan, Louisville, came over with the famous Gospel chorus and gave several spirituals. In opinion of many present, this was one of the best musical programs ever given here. The solo sung by Mr. Brown, especially made a big hit and he has been asked to sing at a musical revue to be given Saturday night. Mr. Rader spoke on the "Palm Tree Blessing." Upon the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem the people waved palm branches. * The evangelist said, "The palm tree is called the price of the vegetable kingdom. The palm tree first of all it is useful. It has more than 365 different uses. 'The Christian with the palm tree blessing is useful. Half of the church is dead timber! Half of the church is willing to work and the other half is willing to allow them to do so. The palm tree is also fruitful. It begins to bear fruit when it is five years old and bears until it dies. The palm tree christian is fruit bearing christian. 'Lastly the palm tree was a sign of victory. Jesus Christ lived the only victorious life ever lived on this earth.' * Miss Sarah E. and Alice P. D. A Comforting Service

From the moment the first telephone call comes in, all the resources of this organization like ours, are always at the service of the family. Our service goes beyond the common idea of the function of a funeral director. It includes attending to many details which are usually left to members of the family.

It also extends to the giving of advice on the many perplexing problems which arise at such a time.

The experience, sympathy and reliability of an organization like ours, are always appreciated.

News Fraternal

See that your secretary sends your lodge news in to be published.

STEPHEN J. YOUNG, Sr.

The economic situation of today behooves all fraternal to conserve their resources. It is a matter of impossibility for dues to run an organization. Your overhead is too great. Sickness and death is too heavy. Go over your organization with a thoroughness based on efficiency. Get the man or woman with a plan that is practical, follow that leadership and you will be able to weather the crisis.

ELKS

Ft. Harrison 709 held their annual social session last Tuesday. Many old members were present with many prospects. Speeches were made, Elk songs sung, eats, refreshments and rousing house warming.

DUNBAR LIBRARY LISTS NEW BOOKS

L. L. Dickerson, Librarian, Says "Every One Can Be His Own College On Nothing A Year"

Hundreds of Indianapolis boys and girls go back to school this month. Scores of Indianapolis people go to school at the Dunbar library all the year round. They borrow an average of 5,500 books per month.

There is no pleasure so keen and lasting as that which comes from reading good books of fiction, biographies, travel and history books, and works on the subject in which you are interested. Every one can be his own college on nothing a year. The library is yours. You support it. Are you getting satisfactory returns on your investment? Books that are not used are no good.

Here are a few new books recently received at Dunbar. Have you read them?

Johnson—"Black Manhattan."

Ashton—"Dr. Serocolls."

Hughes—"Not Without Laugh."

A New Spirit

There has been a great change in funeral customs since the days of our grandfathers. Many of the practices decreed by custom at that time were needlessly cruel to the bereaved relatives and friends. The modern funeral director tries in every way to emphasize the mood of hopefulness, rather than that of gloom. This lightens the burden of the living without detracting from the proper reverence for those who have passed on.
